

Jesus Teaches About The Law

17 "Don't misunderstand why I have come.
Matthew 5:17

Of primary concern to every faithful Jew seeking to evaluate Jesus was,

"What does He think of the law?"

(what does He think of Moses and the prophets)

17 "Don't misunderstand why I have come. I did not come to abolish the law of Moses or the writings of the prophets. No, I came to accomplish their purpose.

Notes:

18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not even the smallest detail of God's law will disappear until its purpose is achieved.

Notes:

Point of Application: It's impossible to accept Christ's authority without accepting _____.

19 So if you ignore the least commandment and teach others to do the same, you will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But anyone who obeys God's laws and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Vs17 The Law is Preeminent (It's good absolutely)

Vs. 18 The Law is permanent (It's established by God)

Vs. 19 The Law is pertinent (It's valid in it's exercise)

Notes:

Apostle Paul writes:

19 Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God. 20 For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.
Romans 3:19,20
