Until this point the scripture has discussed the sins of individuals: Adam, Eve, Cain, Lamech. Now for the first time emphasis shifts to the sins of a group, “the sons of God”, with the result that Gods punishment is directed not upon a man, but against mankind.

The Book of Genesis (The New International Commentary on the Old Testament) By Victor P. Hamilton pg.271

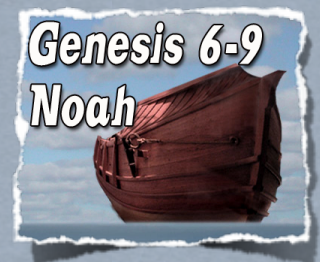

Gen. 6:5-7 The LORD saw how great man's wickedness on the earth had become, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time. ⁶ The LORD was grieved that he had made man on the earth, and his heart was filled with pain. ⁷ So the LORD said, "I will wipe mankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth—men and animals, and creatures that move along the ground, and birds of the air for I am grieved that I have made them."

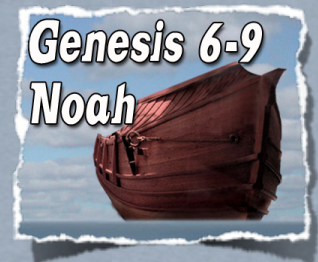

Text Question:

If God created all things, did he create evil? Or is evil simply the absence of God?
