I'm a college professor - I have been for almost a decade. I work reasonably hard at my job, and think I do fairly well. In fact, in my honest and solitary moments, when there's no occasion for false humility, I'd say I'm a better-than-average teacher.

I'm in good company. A recent study revealed that 94 percent of the people who do what I do think they're doing a better than average job...

I'm in good company. A recent study revealed that 94 percent of the people who do what I do think they're doing a better than average job... Clearly, a lot of people are wrong about how they stack up to in comparison with their peers.

...Fortunately, I'm not one of them.

Humility
