

From: "Reasonable Faith?"-

Slide #1 You must decide to deal with the evil in you. (Jan. 6th)

Slide #2 Religion and Gospel also differ in how we treat people who do not share our beliefs. (March. 27th)

Slide #3 You can be sincere and sincerely wrong. (Feb. 13th)

From: "Easter: Jesus the Risen King"-

Slide #1 People had their exceptions. He had His own expectation and purpose... to give His life!. (April 3rd)

From: "Faith in the Family"-

Slide #1-4 (May 8th)

1. You can't rest on the faith of your parents.
2. You can't blame your parents or your past.
3. Parents don't have to beat themselves up over the bad choices their children have made.
4. We dare not be complacent.
5. Children deserve our best.
6. The Church has a responsibility for the next generation too.

Slide #5 When pride seeks to defend, humility allows God to vindicate. (June 5th)

The big illusion is... "I get to decided for myself what's right, what's wrong, where I draw the line." No I don't. There is a moral order in the universe, and I didn't put it there. There is a God and it's not me! - John Ortberg (From 3/3/11)

From: "Lessons from the Heart - Learning from David"-

Slide #1 The nature of friendship: "Hesed" based relationships are selfless. A commitment to the welfare of another person. (July 3rd)

Slide #2 "We refer to a ballet dancer as having grace. We say grace at meals. We talk about the queen of England bringing grace to events she attends. Grace can mean coordination or movement, it can mean prayer, it can refer to dignity and elegance. Most importantly, grace can mean unmerited favor - extending special favor to someone who doesn't deserve it, who hasn't earned it, and can never repay it." - Charles Swindoll, 2000 Thomas Nelson - "David" pg. 277 (Sept. 25th)

Slide #3 When God is in the story it allows me to have: A soft heart & THICK SKIN. (Oct. 30th)

Slide #4 A thick skin without a soft heart leads to bitterness. A soft heart without thick skin leaves you wounded. (Oct. 30th)
