The Servant King

The story of the King... who came to serve.

Mark

14:3-11

³ While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.

The Woman

⁴ Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, "Why this waste of perfume?" ⁵ It could have been sold for more than a year's wages and the money given to the poor." And they rebuked her harshly.

The Reaction

⁶ "Leave her alone," said Jesus. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷ The poor

you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me.

The Rebuke

⁶ "Leave her alone," said Jesus. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷ The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me.

The Rebuke

⁸ She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial.

⁹ I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

The Rebuke

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. ¹¹ They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand him over.
