A close-up photograph of a potter's hands shaping a clay vessel on a pottery wheel. The hands are covered in wet clay, and the wheel is in motion, creating a blurred background. The vessel being shaped has a wide, flared rim and a textured, ribbed body. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the clay and the skill of the potter.

Yet you, Lord, are our Father. We are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand. -Isaiah 64:8

Genesis 4:17-26

What Genesis tells us about God and life.

#1 The second half of Genesis Chapter 4 reveals:

The building of the first CITY. -verse 17

Jean-Jacques
Rousseau

1712 - 1778

"Civilization is a hopeless race to discover remedies for the evils it produces."

"Everything is good as it comes from the hands of the Maker of the world, but degenerates once it gets into the hands of man"

#1 The second half of Genesis Chapter 4 reveals:

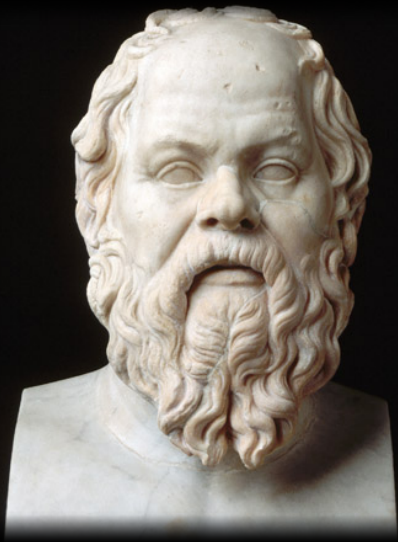

The building of the first CITY. -verse 17

Delivers the first GENEALOGY. -verses 17-23

An advancement of VOCATIONAL diversity.
-verses 19-22

That VIOLENCE, ARROGANCE, and
ANGER are here to stay. -vs.23-24

Does this sound familiar?

Socrates

425 BC

"Our youth now loves luxuries. They have bad manners, contempt for authority. They show disrespect for elders and they love to chatter instead of exercise. Children are now tyrants, not the servants, of their households. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up their food, and tyrannize their teachers."

EVIL

#2 Peeking ahead:

God will draw a sharp contrast to
Lamech's 7 X 7 rule.

Matthew 18:21-22 Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how many times could my brother sin against me and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²² "I tell you, not as many as seven," Jesus said to him, "but 70 times seven.

#3 The story asks us:

In what significant ways are you shaping the world today?
