Sharing the Hope That's Within

Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" ²⁸ Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, ²⁹ "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?" ³⁰ They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat something." ³² But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." ³³ Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?" ³⁴ "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. ³⁵ Don't you have a saying, 'It's still four months until harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields!

³⁹ Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." ⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. ⁴¹ And because of his words many more became believers. ⁴² They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

"We know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.” John 1:29

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life, for God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.”

John 3:16

How can Christians be true to themselves and not hide who they are and still get along with folks who have no desire to hear about what you believe?

Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat something." ³² But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." ³³ Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?" ³⁴ "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work."

34 "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work."

28 Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?" 30 They came out of the town and made their way toward him. John 4:28-30

29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did.

29 "(He) told me everything I ever did.

29 "Come, see a man...

How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)¹⁰ Jesus answered her,

"If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

John 4:9,10

“Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman.” John 4:27

"Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, 'Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did.' " John 4:28

Now as a Jewish rabbi, why wouldn't he say instead, "Well, look. You know, dear, I know you mean well, but you've had a really bad track record. I'd like to see you just keep your nose clean for six weeks, pull your act together, straighten up and fly right for about six weeks. Come back and we'll have a second appointment, and maybe then you'll be ready for the water of life. Maybe then you'll be worthy of it."
