A series from the parables in Luke 15

Now the tax collectors and sinners
were all gathering around to hear Jesus. Luke 15:1

But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” Luke 15:2

An open book is shown from a high angle, with its pages slightly curved. The text is overlaid in white on a dark blue background that covers the entire image. The book's pages are filled with small, illegible text, suggesting it is a Bible or a similar religious text. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the paper and the binding of the book.

"There's joy in heaven over one sinner who repents."

Luke 15:7

“There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.” Luke 15:10

The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him.

Luke 15:28

“Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders.” Luke 15:29

"But when this son of yours,"
who has squandered your property with prostitutes
comes home, you
kill the fattened calf
for him!' Luke 15:30

An open book is shown in the background, slightly out of focus, with a dark blue overlay. The text is centered on the page.

Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. ³² I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”
Luke 5:31,32

“My son,” the father said, “you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. Luke 15:31

“But we had to celebrate and be glad,
because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.” Luke 15:32

“Only people who know they’re lost
have any hope of being found.”
