“You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, persecution and sufferings.”

2 Timothy 3:10

“Christian unity is very good and infinitely to be desired, but the true field on which it should display itself is that of united work for the common Lord.”

Alexander Maclaren

A "disciple" was not only a pupil, but an adherent; hence they are spoken of as imitators of their teacher; cp. Jhn 8:31; 15:8.

New Testament

“I thank God, whom I serve, as my ancestors did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. Recalling your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.”

2 Timothy 1:3-5

2 Timothy 1:3-5

“And behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman (Eunice) who believed, but his father was Greek.”

Acts 16:1

“But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.”

2 Timothy 3:14-15

Jesus said, "You do search the scriptures: because in them you think you have life; but actually, they are testifying of me" (John 5:39). Again he said, "Lo, I have come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God" (Hebrews 10:7). The volume of the book, the Old Testament, it's all about Jesus Christ.

The whole concept of redemption is wrapped up in the Old Testament. The promise of the Messiah, the details of the Messiah, they are all there. And Paul said, You've known the Holy Scriptures, able to bring you to a faith in Jesus Christ, salvation through the faith in Jesus Christ.

Then Jesus went around teaching from village to village. Calling the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over impure spirits. These were his instructions: “Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town.

Mark 6:6-13

And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.” They (the disciples) went out and preached that people should repent. 13 They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.
