Proverbs 1:1-7,22&30-32

The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel: ² for gaining wisdom and instruction; for understanding words of insight; ³ for receiving instruction in prudent behavior, doing what is right and just and fair; ⁴ for giving prudence to those who are simple, knowledge and discretion to the young—

Proverbs 1:1-7,22&30-32

⁵ let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance— ⁶ for understanding proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise. ⁷ The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 1:1-7,22&30-32

²² How long will you who are simple love your simple ways? How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge?

Proverbs 1:1-7,22&30-32

²² How long will you who are simple love your simple ways? How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge? ³⁰ Since they would not accept my advice and spurned my rebuke, ³¹ they will eat the fruit of their ways & be filled with the fruit of their schemes. ³² For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them.

3. What’s Jesus have to say?

1. Who is a “fool”?

a: Someone who ignores the order (laws)
God has put in place BUT should know

*“In English the word “fool” is a little more than an insult. In Proverbs, however fools are people so habitually out of touch with reality that they make life miserable for themselves and all around them. We can't treat our bodies any way we want without consequences we can't treat people anywhere we want and expect to have good Friends and a strong family. There are various forms of foolishness, but the ultimate foolishness is to make anything the center of our lives besides God...
