matthew chapter 11

Snapshots of Jesus

“He who has
ears to hear,
let him hear.”

Matthew 11:15

A close-up of a religious tapestry or embroidery depicting a man with a dark beard and a crown of thorns, likely Jesus Christ. The man's face is the central focus, with a crown of thorns resting on his head. The background is a light, textured fabric.

"Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where he had done so many of his miracles, because they hadn't repented of their sins and turned to God.

Matthew 11:20

<sup>21</sup> "What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. <sup>22</sup> I tell you, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you.

23 "And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead. For if the miracles I did for you had been done in wicked Sodom, it would still be here today. 24 I tell you, even Sodom will be better off on judgment day than you."

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

“Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends.”

At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children.
26 Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

<sup>27</sup> All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Homer

“No one lives content.”

Wallace Stevens

Modernist Poet

“The older I get, the more I can’t be content with anything. Even as I’m enjoying it, I can’t help but think, ‘This is going to perish and go away.’ It ruins my enjoyment of it.”

Henrik Ibsen

Famous Norwegian Playwright

“The Life Lie”

29 "Take my yoke upon you..."

28 "...and I will give you rest.

They (religious leaders of his day) crush people with unbearable religious demands and never lift a finger to ease the burden.

Matthew 23:4

28 "...all of you who are burdened

29 "Take my yoke upon you..."

28 "...all of you who are burdened

29 "Take my yoke upon you..."

30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

29 "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. Colossians 3:5

Dear children, keep away from anything that might take God's place in your hearts.            1 John 5:21

25 "At that time Jesus said, 'I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.' "

Matthew 18:3 says,

“Unless you be converted and become little children, you cannot enter the kingdom of God.”

"I want to be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ ..."

Philippians Chapter 3

28 "Come to me, all you who are [already] weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For [only] my yoke is easy and [only] my burden is light."
